

DOGS DESERVE RESPONSIBLE OWNERS

HOW TO ENTER AN EXHIBIT IN A DOG SHOW

When you have read a Show Advertisement in the Canine News you will note a number of important features of the show are quoted:

- the date of the fixture.
- the type of fixture, Championship Show, Open Show, Parade.
- the Judge or Judges officiating.
- the name and address of the Club secretary to whom the entries should be sent.
- the closing date of entry.
- the classes offered for the breeds.
- and many other matters pertinent to the show

If you are lodging an entry for your first show we recommend you seek advice and assistance from the person from whom you purchased your puppy.

Once you decide on the fixture in which you wish to enter the following will apply:

1. Purchase from Canine Association of WA office a booklet of entry forms. Entry forms are printed in easy "cheque book" style with a butt to provide a record of your entry for future reference.
2. Complete the entry form in ink in block letters or in type ensuring all the information entered in the appropriate places is correct. We strongly recommend you transfer the information, where applicable, direct from the registration certificate.
3. For the convenience of new members an example of a correctly completed entry form and information source is on the back of this page.

When you have completed filling out the entry form, signed the form and are satisfied all the details entered are correct, place the following in an envelope addressed to the Club Secretary as shown in the schedule:

- a. the completed entry form.
- b. a remittance (cheque or money order) covering the entry fee and purchase of the Show catalogue which comprises a programme of all dogs entered in the Show under their respective breeds and classes.
