All parts of the CAWA Regulations are to be read in conjunction with the Australian National Kennel Council Ltd (ANKC) Regulations, which will take precedence. Only those regulations that add to the ANKC regulations Part 3 Judges Training and Examinations are included in the CAWA “F” regulations.

F1. Terminology

- 1.1 Member Body. The Canine Association of Western Australia (CAWA) or Dogs West..
- 1.2 ANKC. Australian National Kennel Council.
- 1.3 CJTWP. Conformation Judges Training Working Party.
- 1.4 Mentor. An ANKC Championship Show Judge who has completed the ANKC Examiner/Assessor Accreditation Programme as outlined in Section 9 of these regulations.

F2 Method of Education

- 2.3 Record Keeping
 - 2.3.1 Trainees are responsible for keeping a record of all open shows and parades judged – the number of dogs and breeds judged. When applying for elevation a summary of the relevant records must be included unless otherwise specified on the appropriate form. Trainee judges must complete a Trainee Judges Record Form (J4) in duplicate after each appointment. One copy must be forwarded to the CJTWP through the Dogs West office within ten (10) working days of the open show or parade, the other copy to be retained for the Trainee Judge’s own records. Forms not submitted within the time limit as required shall be rejected and the numbers for that appointment will not be counted. All dates as included in the annual CJTWP calendar issued to trainees are to be complied with.

F4. Aspiring Judge Entrance Programme (1st Group)

- 4.1 Aspiring Judge Entrance Program (1st Group or Single Breed)
 - 4.1.1 To enrol in the Program as an Aspiring Judge, a member must fulfil the following criteria:
 - 4.1.1.5(a) Dispensation may be granted from ANKC Regulation 4.1.1.3 or 4.1.1.4 on production of evidence from the applicant that they reside in an area that prohibits the breeding of dogs by State or Local Authority law.
 - 4.1.1.6 (c) Have successfully completed the Dogs West Stewards’ Course and have acted as ring and gate steward - on no less than six (6) occasions of which three (3) must be full groups at Championship Shows - for a minimum of three hundred (300) dogs within the two (2) years preceding application. (01/14)

F6 Trainee Judge Program (1st and Subsequent Groups)

- 6.1.1 Module 1. Breed Lectures / Field Events / Seminars
 - 6.1.1 (a) A Trainee judge must attend a minimum of seven (7) lectures per group per year.
One of the lectures must be a Mock Practical Assessment.
Trainees must attend the Information Lecture.
Any missed lectures require an essay as per ANKC Reg 6.1.1 (b).

A Trainee who fails to comply with ANKC 6.1.1 (b) will be ineligible to sit either the Theory or Practical exams in the current training year.

The essay must be submitted prior to any application to take an examination.

- (i) If a Trainee is unable to attend the compulsory Mock Practical Lecture, the Trainee is required to:
- do an essay of 1000 words on a breed lecture given on that night using the approved cover sheet which appears on the website (08/16)
 - supply a Medical Certificate, if it is for health reasons, or
 - submit satisfactory evidence in writing if it is for another reason
 - On written acceptance of either a medical certificate or satisfactory evidence, the Trainee must be available prior to the Group Theory Examination to attend a Mock Practical for that group to be held at a time arranged by the Group Convenor/s. (07/15)
- (ii) If a Trainee is unable to attend the compulsory Information Lecture they must inform the conformation training coordinator in writing to the Administration office, stating the reason for non-attendance.
The reason will be assessed by the coordinator.

Trainees who do not submit a reasonable excuse will be required to:

- complete a further twenty (20) critiques over and above those already required and,
- steward for one hundred (100) dogs at at least two (2) shows during the following six (6) months – this requirement to be over and above the stewarding component already listed and also to be completed by those not required to steward to be eligible for a practical examination.

When the reason for non-attendance is considered appropriate by the Coordinator, the trainee is advised and a timeframe is agreed with the Trainee to carry out an online information process.

The online information process is done via email and consists of:

- Provision of a copy of the judges training regulations and paperwork as presented at the information evening
- A questionnaire on the paperwork provided

A section for questions the Trainee may have of the training committee.

The Trainee must return the completed questionnaire to the Administration office within 14 calendar days from the date it is sent to the Trainee.

Failure to complete and return the questionnaire will result in the trainee having to:..

- complete a further twenty (20) critiques over and above those already required and,
- steward for one hundred (100) dogs at at least two (2) shows during the following six (6) months – this requirement to be over and above the stewarding component already listed and also to be completed by those not required to steward to be eligible for a practical examination.

The training coordinator has 14 calendar days to respond in writing to the Trainee to:

- Provide feedback on the completed questionnaire to the Trainee
 - Answer any questions raised
- (Refer to ANKC Part 3 Regulation 6.1.1 (b) & (c) (12/15))

- 6.1.1(d) Essays must be lodged in duplicate with the Dogs West office for recording with one to be forwarded to the relevant convenor and the other copy to the trainee. On receipt of an essay, the convenor will mark and return it to the trainee OR if deemed to not meet CAWA 'F' Regulations requirements, refer it to the committee for confirmation that the essay needs to be returned to the Trainee for amendment and resubmission within fourteen (14) days. If the essay is submitted by email, then the submission is taken to have been made at the time the email was sent, as per the time and date indicated on the senders email when received by the Dogs West office. Acknowledgement will be by return email. (03/13)
- 6.1.1 (e) In extenuating circumstances, trainees may apply to the convenor, before the due date, for an extension for submission of an essay. An extension may be granted after consultation with the Chair/Coordinator regarding the reason for the extension. If an extension is granted, then the date by which the essay must be submitted will be advised to the trainee. (08/20)
- F6.1.1(f) Failure to submit essays by the due date or the amended due date will render the Trainee ineligible to sit the next Theory Exam (parts A and/or B) for the Group in which the essay/s have not been submitted. Where the trainee has already passed the Theory Exam, then they will be penalised by being made ineligible to take the next Practical Exam in the Group for which the essay/s have not been submitted. Submission of an essay/s after the due date or amended due date will not mitigate the penalty and the trainee will be required to enrol in and complete the next or a subsequent training programme for the Group in which the essay/s have not been submitted. (12/20)
- 6.1.1(g) Failure to submit essays will render the Trainee ineligible to take an Examination until the missed Breed lectures are attended.
- 6.1.1(h) There will only be one extension and one resubmission per essay.
- 6.1.2 Module 2. Practical Experience
- 6.1.2(a) No Trainee may judge in excess of 200 Exhibits without permission of the President and/or the Vice President on the recommendation of the Conformation Judges Training Working Party) (11/12)

6.1.3 Module 3 Breed Specialty Show

Trainee judges are to attend a minimum of one (1) Breed Specialty Show for the Group or other numbers set by the Member Body. Where a Group has limited numbers of Breed Specialty Shows permission may be granted by the CJTWP for a trainee to complete the specialty critiques at Group or Multi-breed Specialty shows. A written critique of five (5) dogs examined at each event is to be submitted to the Member Body within 14 days of the event. (10/19)

The critique is to be countersigned by the Breed Specialty Judge or a recognised Assessor for the Group, who is not a trainee judge currently enrolled in the scheme and who has examined the said dogs on the day. Critiques may be completed at shows out of the State provided that the CJTWP have arranged for a suitable assessor to be present to countersign critiques. (02/19)

F7 Single Breed Training Programme

7.1.5 Where there is a Breed Club in the State, judging at that breed club's Open Show, Parade or Members Competition, to gain practical experience is to be desired. If not possible, Group and All Breeds Clubs are to be encouraged to invite the Single Breed Trainee to judge their breed at one of their Open Shows to enable them to meet the required number of 25 dogs needed to be judged. Where there are insufficient numbers in the breed the trainee judge may apply to the CJTWP for dispensation from this regulation requirement.

Where conducted, attend (at the discretion of the Member Body) the Breed club's Open and Championship Show, the Group club's Open and Championship Show and the breed judging at an approved major Show. i.e.: Royal Show or the major non-Royal show in each State.

Where dispensation is granted, the trainee judge must critique 25 dogs, countersigned by an accredited assessor for the breed, who is not currently a trainee judge enrolled in the scheme, who has examined the said dogs on the day. (02/19)

F9 Theory Examinations

F9.1.1 The Theory Examination may be divided into two (2) parts i.e. (A) and (B), both of which must be completed. Part A may be undertaken followed by Part B, or Part B may be undertaken followed by Part A. Irrespective of the order in which the parts are taken, both parts must be completed within the current training programme for which the Trainee is enrolled. If both Parts A & B are not able to be completed within the current training programme, the trainee must re-enrol for a further training programme.

9.1.1.1 A pass in the theory exam will be achieved with a combined 75% mark from the two parts.

9.1.1.2 A fail in the Theory Exam requires both parts A and B be repeated. This will require the Trainee to enrol in a new two year training programme.

9.1.1.3 Examinations will be offered in July and October of the same Calendar Year.

9.1.1.4 The effective dates for breed standards to be used in the July and October examinations will be 31st May and 31st August respectively of the Calendar Year. (12/20)

- 9.1.2 Single Breed Theory Examinations shall include questions requiring answers in more depth than Group Theory Examinations. Key phrases from the Breed Standard will be essential and may include phrases from the Breed Standard Extension.(10/11)
- 9.1.3 A candidate who has taken a Theory Examination can make an appointment to see their paper in the presence of the Co-ordinator or their Group Convenor, or a person delegated by the Co-ordinator. All requests for appointments are to be made to the Dogs West office. (01/17)
- 9.1.4 Trainee judges who fail examinations (theory or practical) are required to continue to attend all lectures until licensed. In the event of persons being unable to attend any scheduled lecture, they are required to submit an essay of 1000 words (within the prescribed time) in its place

F11 General

11.6 Examination Protocols

Trainees and Aspirants during the conduct of Theory and Practical examinations shall do so without referring to any information that relates to their examination – this includes, but is not limited to breed standards, notes, electronic information, advice from others.

Where examinations are to be conducted as Open Book Examinations all participants will be so advised in writing by Dogs West either in the curriculum, by letter or by e-mail prior to that examination.

Any breach of this regulation will result in the suspension of the trainee or aspirant from the conformation judges' training programme for a twelve (12) month period.

11.6.1 Results of Theory and Entrance Examinations will be available from the Association from 2.00pm on the working day after the conclusion of the examinations.

Results of Practical Examinations will be available from the Association from 2.00pm on the second (2nd) working day after the conclusion of said practical examination. (11/15)

11.7 Stewarding Requirements

All Trainee Judges must steward for a minimum of 300 dogs at no fewer than three (3) shows during the two (2) years prior to applying for a Practical Exam for their first and second groups. On the third and subsequent groups, trainees must steward a minimum of three (3) shows, for each group in which they are training, which must be All Breeds Championship or Group Specialty Shows, prior to applying for a Practical Exam.

Evidence of this stewarding is to be submitted with their application for the Practical Examination. Trainee Judges are to be responsible for maintaining their own records and submitting these records to the office for collation at the time of applying for a practical examination. (09/21)

F12 Appeals

- 12.2 Where a Trainee Judge believes that the Practical Examination for which they were a participant was not conducted in accordance with the Regulations, they must lodge an appeal with the Member Body. This appeal must be lodged by 2.00pm on the second working day after the conclusion of said practical examination and should detail the Regulation/s that are alleged to have been breached. Appeals received after this time will not be considered. (03/13, 11/15)

F14 Applications and Renewals

- 14.1 Applications for 1st and subsequent groups to be made on the appropriate form accompanied by relevant fee and submitted to the Canine Association of Western Australia (Dogs West office) not later than 1st December, or where this falls on a weekend or public holiday, by close of business on the next working day, each year.
